THE 1966 ELK

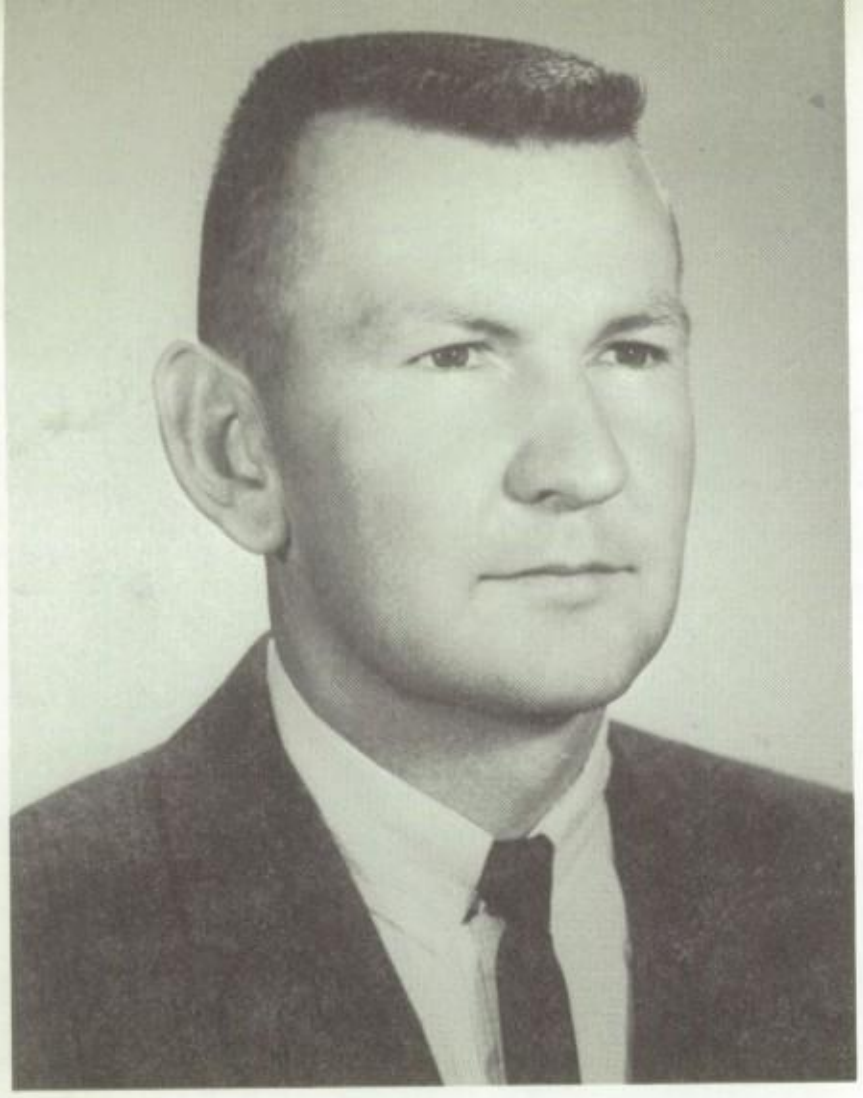
VOLUME 42

ROUND VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL SPRINGERVILLE-EAGAR, ARIZONA

SCHOOL LIFE IS MANY THINGS TO MANY PEOPLE. It reflects all facets of youth and mirrors the ideals of our society. A yearbook must somehow capture the energy and spirit of a student body, the seriousness of academic study, the excitement of competitive sport and the inspiration of the finer things of life.

ACADEMIC, SOCIAL, CULTURAL, PHYSICAL . . . These are the key words and descriptions of life at Round Valley High School. Each of us spends four years here that cannot be replaced. We will leave, but Elkland memories will go with us--captured on the pages of THE 1966 ELK.



COACH MARLIN V. LE SUEUR

The staff of the 1966 Elk proudly dedicates this book to you, Coach Marlin LeSueur. You've always been one of those people we can look to for guidance--not only in choosing our future colleges and careers, but also as a man of high ideals.

Your understanding and interest, along with constant encouragement, are greatly appreciated by everyone of us here at Elkland.

You have taught some of us in grade school, most of us in high school and earned a place deep within our hearts. You've shown us how to have a winning basketball team and you've demonstrated good sportsmanship even when we didn't come out on top. For all these many reasons, Coach, we now say "thank you".

Coach LeSueur, his wife Dodie and their children Kelley, Vickie and Lisa.

DEDICATION

Coach LeSueur and the second place trophy won in the B North Tournament. The scoreboard shows that the Elks won 13 and lost 7 for the season.

PHYSICAL SOCIAL

ACADEMIC . . .

1. A faculty men's barber shop quartet entertained the student body in the Thanksgiving assembly on November 24. Singing were Mr. Boman, Mr. Wiltbank, Mr. Lewis, and Mr. Brown.

2. Freshman singers presented "Ten Little Turkeys" as their part of the Thanksgiving Assembly. Hall, Heydt, Slade, Waelbroeck, Nelson, Harper, McCall, Burke.

CULTURAL

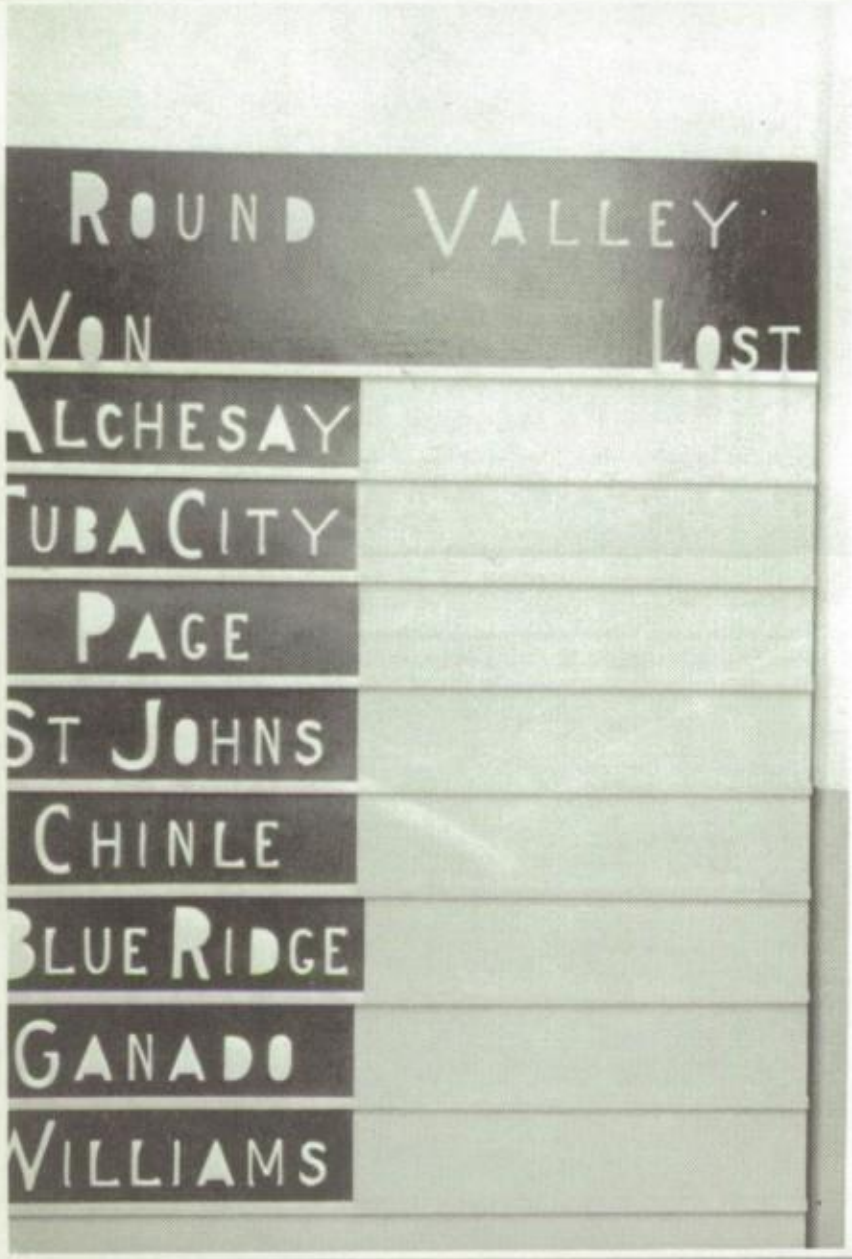
3. Some excellent banjo music stirred the student body at another assembly.

4. D'Wayne Sherwood sings "God Bless America" as a part of the Statehood Day Assembly, February 14.

5. A new set of kettle drums greatly enhance the offerings of the music department.

1. Cheers are led by the Jayvees in a pep assembly to build up school spirit before a big home game.

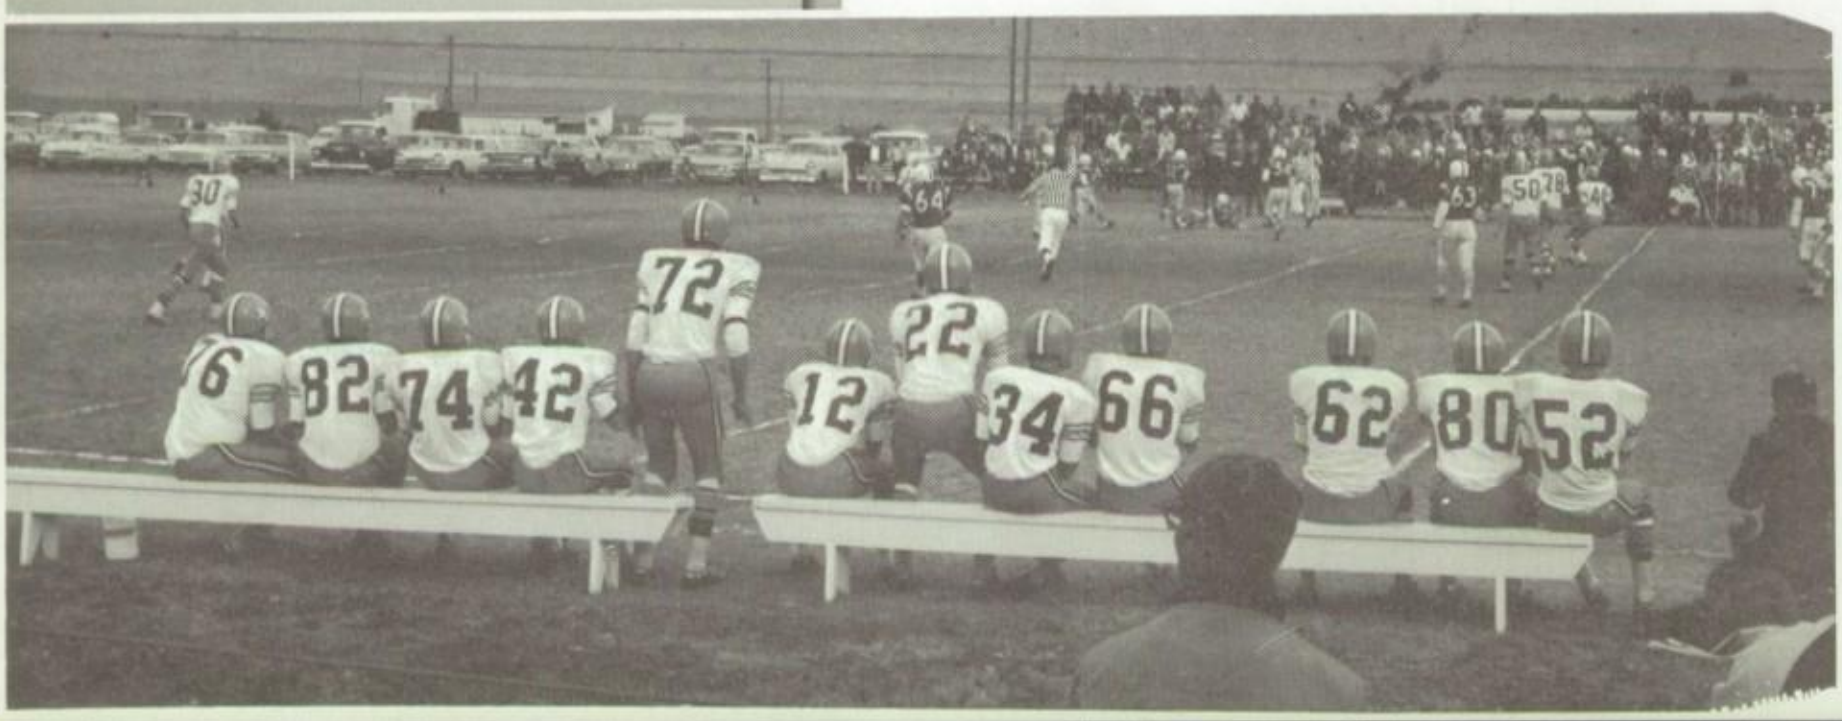
2. The varsity cheerleaders had a big crowd of Elks to help cheer the boys on to victory over Blue Ridge. This win assured the Elks of at least second place in the B North Tourney on February 18 & 19.

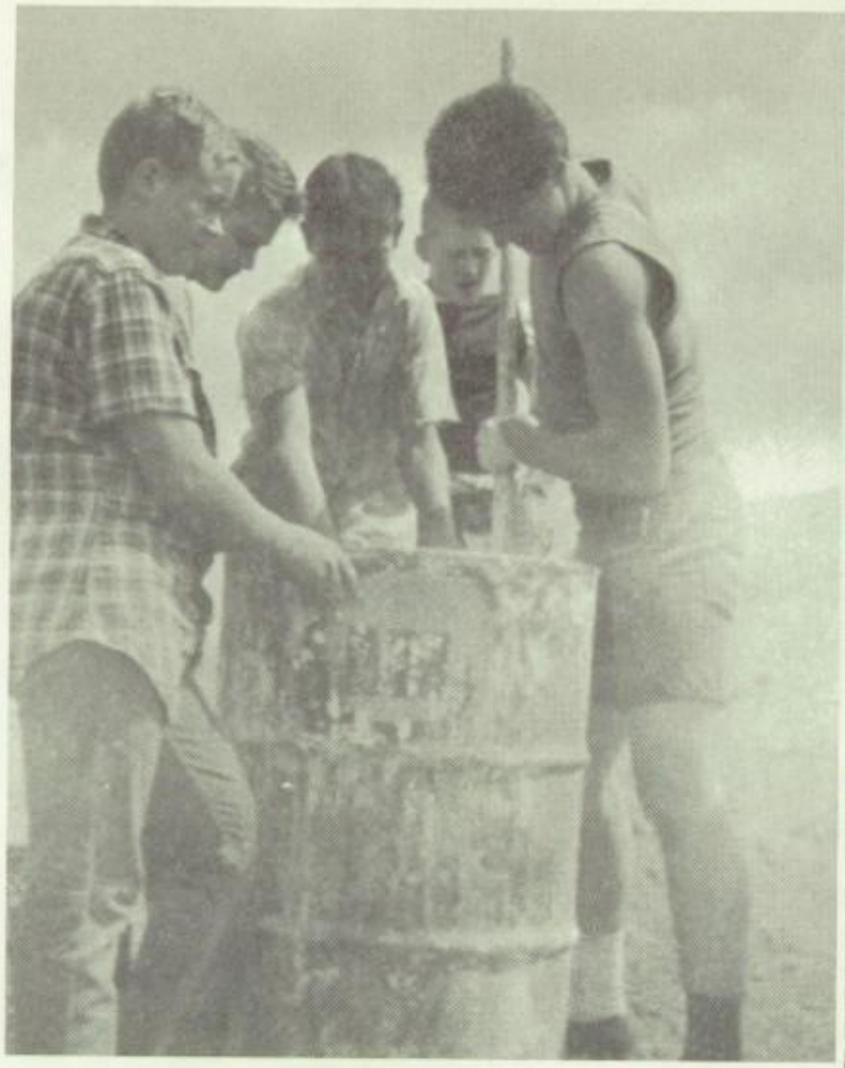


PHYSICAL

3. The hall scoreboard showed eight wins and no losses when the regular football season ended on November 12.

4. The champs of B Central, the Ray Bobcats, came to Elkland for the first-round play-off for the state Class B championship on November 20. The Elks lost 27-0 but demonstrated good sportsmanship. Coach Ted Sorich later was named Coach of the Year for sportsmanship displayed by him and his team during the season.



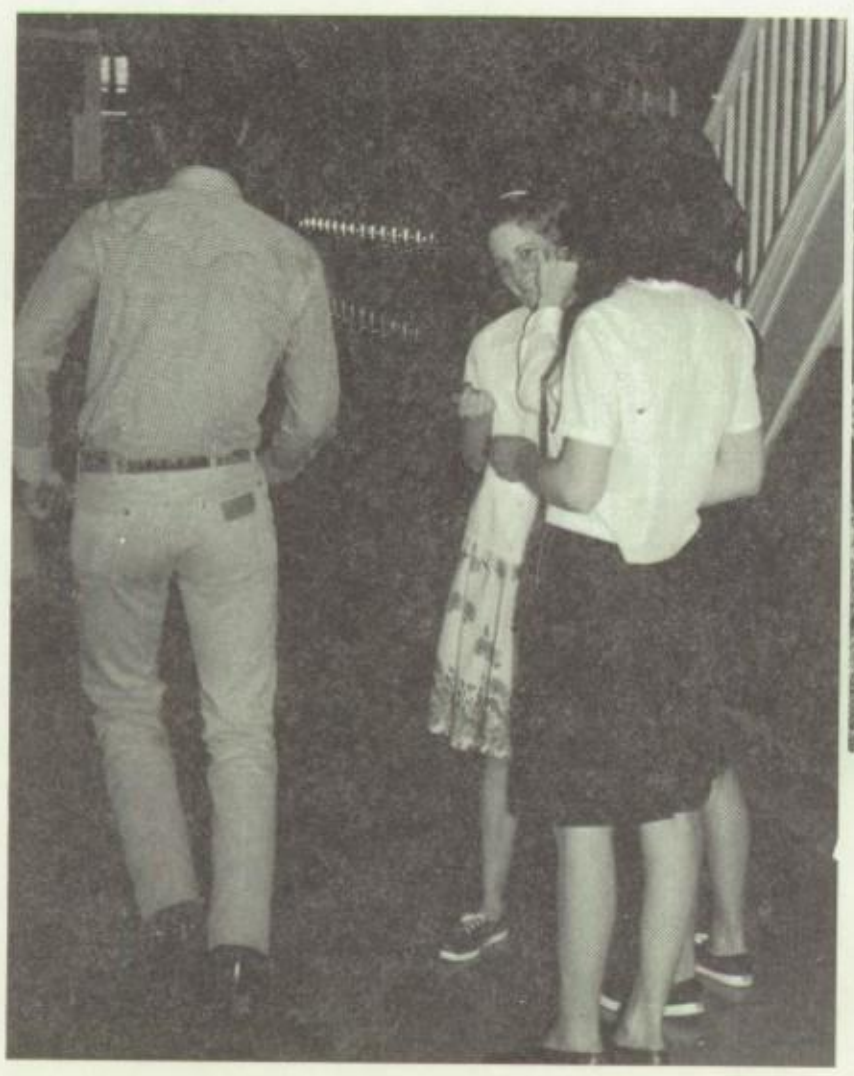


Freshmen Donald Nelson, Charles Fuentes, Steve Anway, Russell Crosby and Charles Wiltbank mix lime for whitewashing the "R.V." on initiation day.

Can all 15 of these boys fit in Roy Wiley's car? You're wrong--they did it! Back: Hickerson, Mares, Reed, Gardom, Brian Daniels, Coleman. Front: Boles, McCandless, Gary Daniels, Keith Cole, Chavez, Proctor, Dan Harper, Roy Wiley, Ken Harper.

SOCIAL

Geraldin Pond and Myrna Udall assist Lynn Hill in adjusting earrings for her newly pierced ears while Junior Perry makes the mad dash to first period class.



Keith Cole, Robert Silva, Lloyd Hickerson, and Mike Wilkins decorate the Silva car for the car parade to St. Johns when the Elks invade Redskin territory on October 8. (The Elks returned home with Redskin scalps after a 7-0 football victory over their arch-rivals.

1. National School Assemblies sent us a banjo player and his mechanical assistant on September 22.

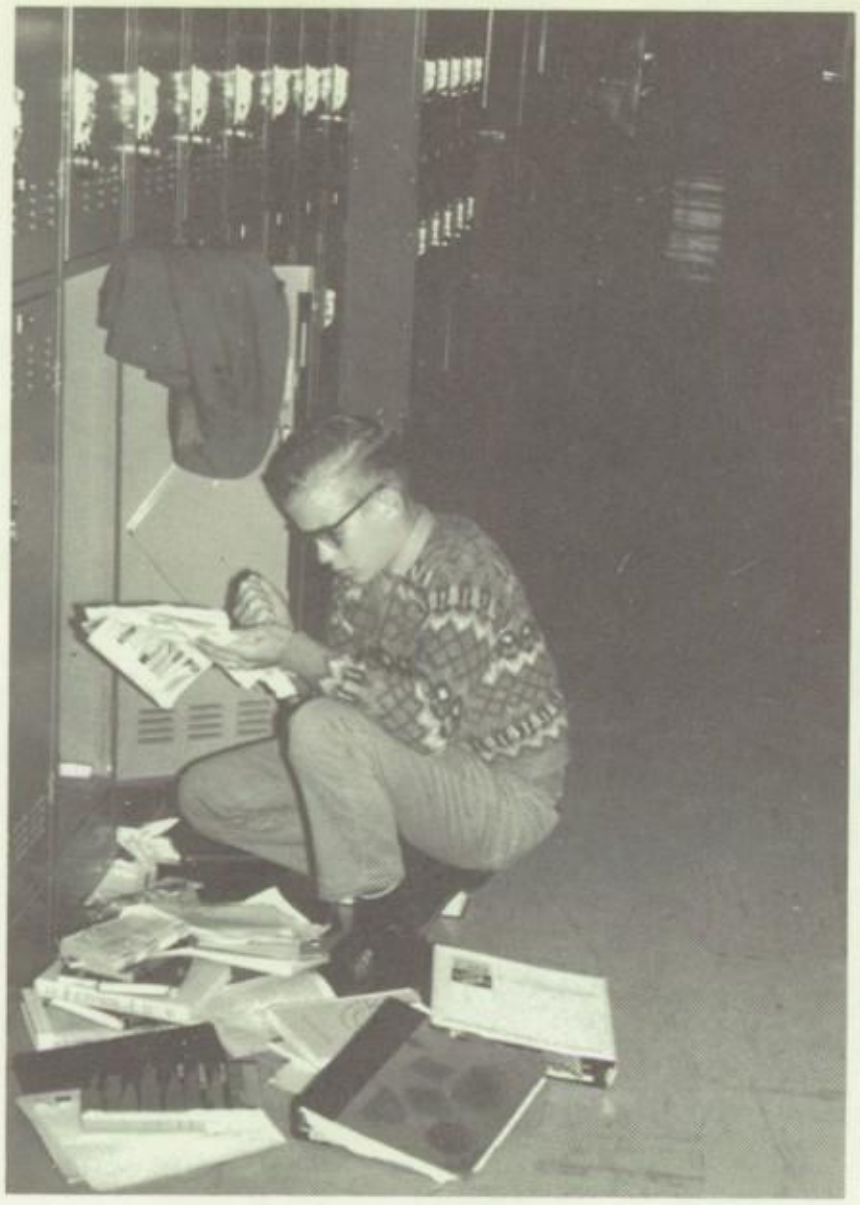
2. Happy Dayze gave his "Psychology of a Clown" assembly to us on February 1 as another representative of National School Assemblies.

3. Folk lore was the topic of stories told to the student body in another National Assembly.

5. George Proctor gave a stirring talk on the student's viewpoint on patriotism in the Statehood Day Assembly on February 14.

4. Nancy Farrell, Larry White, Bev Hall, Faye Coombs, Jeanne Wiltbank, Brent Hall look on the Scottish Biologist tested John Wiltbank's sense of taste with a chemical solution. The Biologist also came from National School Assemblies and presented his program on science to the student body on January 10.

ASSEMBLIES



1. Those lockers do get a bit messy, don't they? Alan Scott takes time out to read a long lost comic book he found while cleaning out his locker.

2. Mr. Shaffer made sure that "Charlie Brown had his protective goggles on when chemistry students performed an experiment in his classroom.
3. Round Valley High hosted the B North tournament in February and many faculty members and students worked at the games. Here Mr. Brown takes tickets while Gloria Queen and Bev Hall sell programs.

HALL, CLASSROOM, GYM & AUD. SCENE OF EVENTS

The first pep assembly of the school year featured Coach Sorich's introduction of the varsity football team to the student body. Shown here are: Fred Martin, Robert Whiting, John Sherwood, Reuben Eagar, Evan Eagar, David Udall, Harvey Slade, Mike Padgett, Norman Mecham, Keith Nicoll, D'Wayne Sherwood and John Wiltbank. Not pictured were Steve Udall, Willis Haws, Randy Lee, Keith Peters, Roy Wiley, Gary Bruce Wiltbank, Alan LeSueur, Ronnie Carrillo, Charles Wiltbank, Toby Joy, Craig LeSueur, Young Bounds, Steve Coombs, George Proctor and Steve Gillespie.

1. Teo Carrillo and Mrs. LeSueur were presented gifts by Principal Sorich at the Christmas Assembly from the administration, faculty and student body.

2. Projected plans for the new addition to Round Valley High were viewed by Myrna Udall, Joan Hall, Christine Hamblin, Bette Estes and Norman Mecham. These plans, on a hoped for, greatly enlarged high school, were a part of a library display.

3. Teachers get sleepy, too! Mrs. Black utilizes a few minutes during her preparation period in the library for a "cat nap".

VARIED SITUATIONS MAKE LIFE INTERESTING

4. Talk about being educated in the ways of James Bond! The Ray High School Band entertained at halftime of the playoff game on November 20.

5. Larry White, Tody Joy and Carla Gillespie get a banjo lesson from the expert during a national assembly in September.

A Choir Christmas Party on December 20 in the auditorium featured Spanish food, crazy gifts and lots of fun for all.

A Pancake Breakfast, sponsored by the Band on February 24, pleased the appetites of band members Dean Wilkins, Ruben Turley and D'Wayne Sherwood.

MUSICAL ACTIVITIES ENJOYED

The Elk Choir presented a concert of Christmas Music on December 21, 1965.

Band members also participated in the Christmas Concert.

Choir Director Wes Boman amuses the choir by reading Mickey Mouse letters.

Helen Hamblin opens her Christmas gift of two kissing dolls at the Choir Party.

Elk Twirlers performed at home games during the football and basketball games to delight the townspeople. Twirlers are: Bonnie Jo Bounds, Jeanne Wiltbank, Hariella Haws and Kaynetta Slade.

TWIRLERS FLASH THROUGH ROUTINES

Performing in pep assemblies was a part of the duties assigned to the twirlers. Here they twirl as football players in a football assembly.

#1. Keith Peters (#24) runs the sweep play in St. Johns game for five yard gain. Willis Haws does the blocking. Round Valley won the game 7-0.

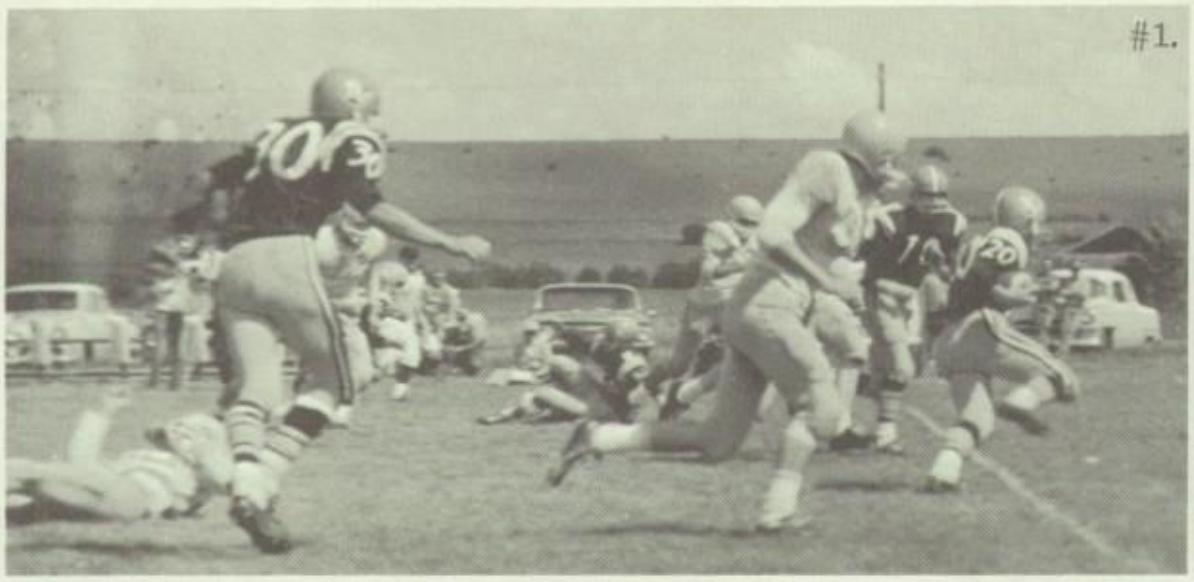
#2. Keith Peters kicks the extra point in the Chinle game. The kick was good. Good protection by the forward wall was demonstrated. The score was 7-0 in the Elks favor.

#3. Craig LeSueur turns corner on sweep play in the Williams game for a 20 yard gain. Haws #60 and Wiltbank #78 lead the play. Round Valley won 34-6.

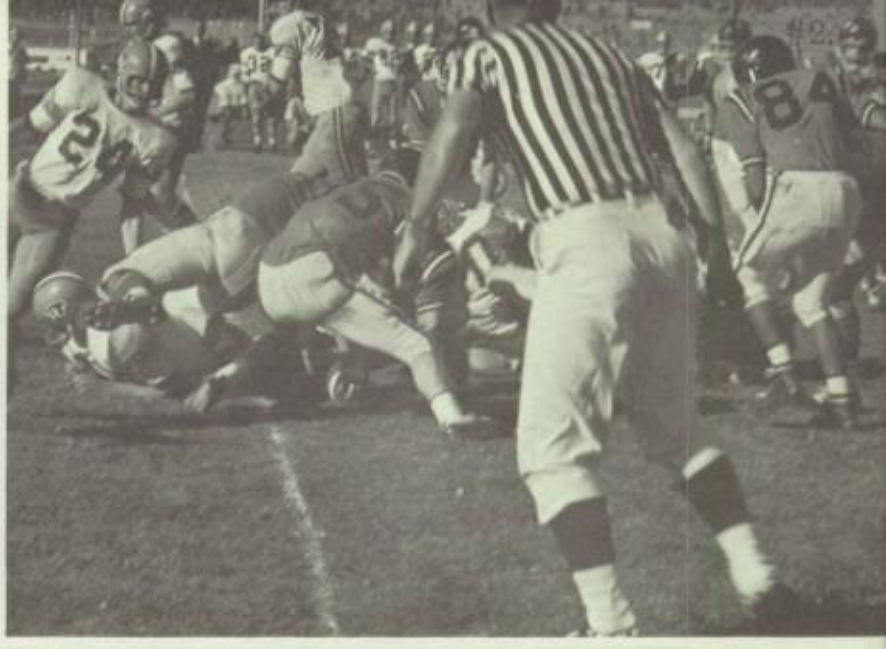
WIN SECOND CONSECUTIVE "B

#4. Defense converges on the Page ball carrier who was stopped for a two yard gain by Norman Mecham #63.

Good pursuit is demonstrated here. The Elks won by a lopsided 39-7 score.



#1.



#3.

#1. Craig LeSueur is off on a 45 yard touchdown run on a dive play in the Alchesay game. David Udall, #70, leads the ball carrier. The Elks won the opening game 47-0.

#3. The Elks move out on snap running 22 lead with Keith Peters carrying the ball against Page. The Elks won again, 39-7.

#2. Fumble! Williams recovered to score their only marker of the day when the Elks avenged last year's only loss with a 34-6 win. Keith Peters, #24 attempts to recover.

NORTH" CROWN WITH 8-0 RECORD

#5. Keith Peters takes on a 65 yard touchdown run in the Ganado game on a slant play. The Elks were victorious 41-0.

#5.

#1. BACKS: George Proctor, Craig LeSueur, Keith Peters, Steve Udall.

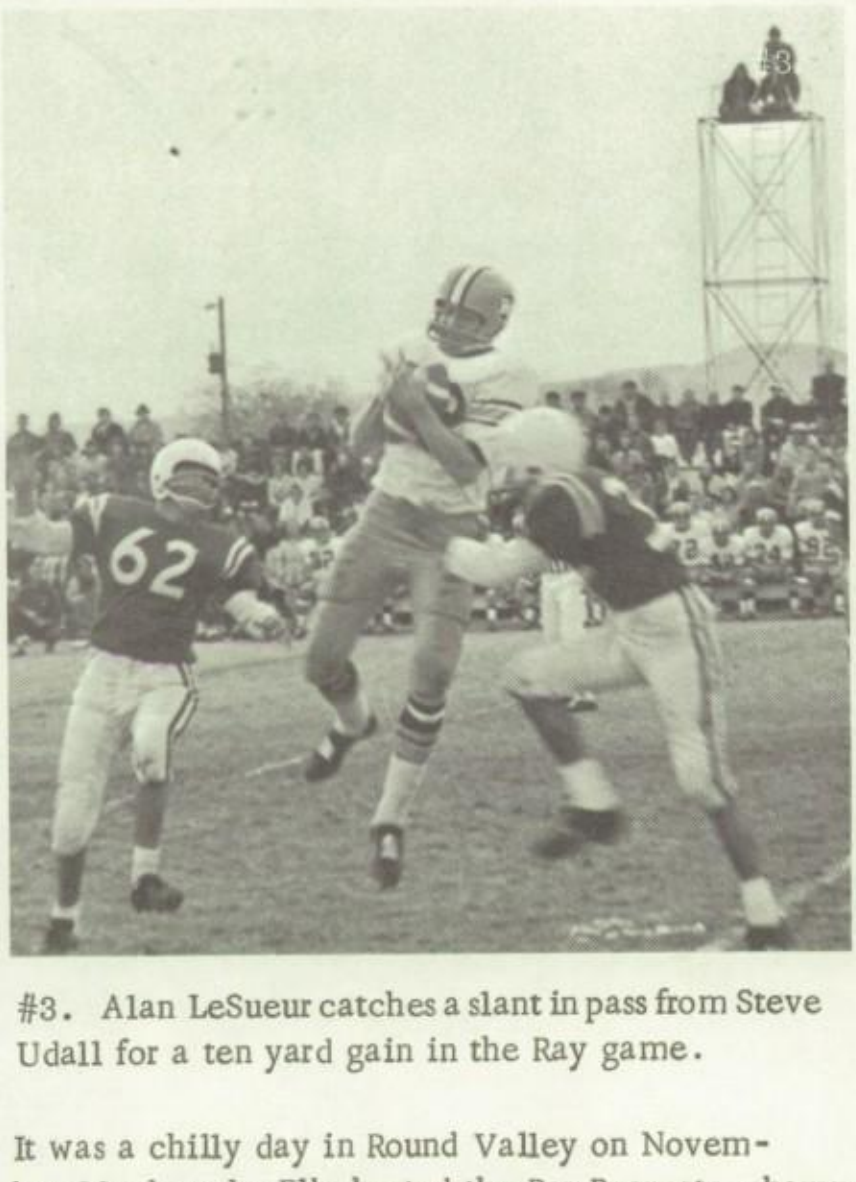
#4. RESERVES: Young Bounds, Steve Gillespie, David Udall, Randy Lee, Keith Nicoll.

#5. Each game began with a prayer by the team. Coach Foote leads the prayer before an important game.

#1.

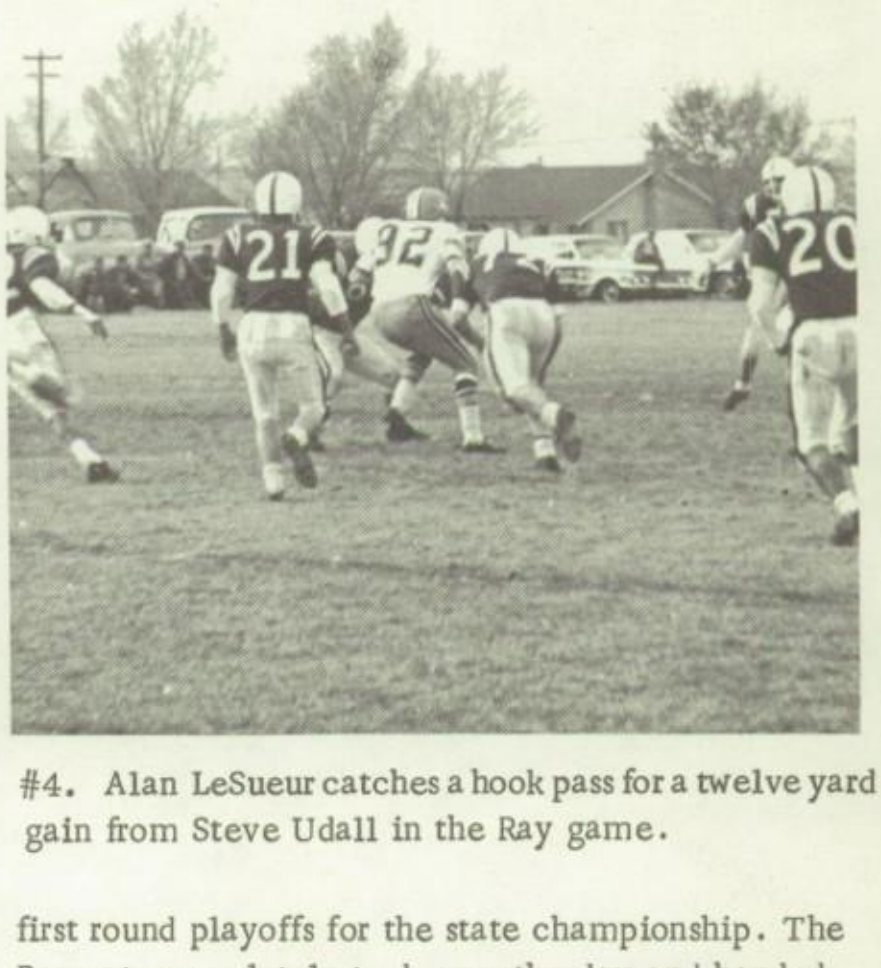
#1. The Ray Bearcats moved the ball well in the air in the play-off game at Round Valley on November 20.

#2. Ronnie Carrillo is overthrown by Udall on screen pass in Ray game. John Wiltbank #78 and Willis Haws #60 attempt to block.



#3. Alan LeSueur catches a slant in pass from Steve Udall for a ten yard gain in the Ray game.

#4.



#4. Alan LeSueur catches a hook pass for a twelve yard gain from Steve Udall in the Ray game.

It was a chilly day in Round Valley on November 20 when the Elks hosted the Ray Bearcats, champpions of the "B Central" Conference and the only other undefeated class B school in Arizona for the first round playoffs for the state championship. The Bearcats completely took over the day and handed the Elks a 27-0 loss and went on to win the state championship.

BY "B CENTRAL" RAY IN PLAYOFF

#5. The Elks were without the services of Captain Keith Peters during the Ray game (due to injuries received in the Williams game) until after the half when he saw limited action. Here Coach confers with Keith and John Sherwood.

#6. Ray's band presented a half-time show to round out the day's activities.

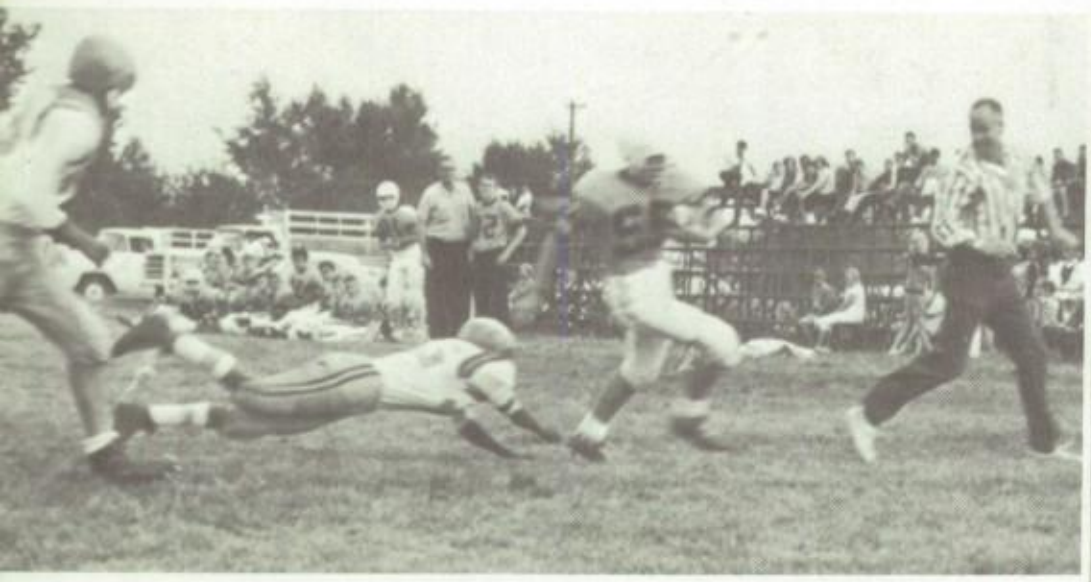
#6.



Herman Logan carries the ball in the Alchesay game.

Officers Norman Mecham, John Sherwood, Marcia Greenwood, Helen Hamblin and Presidents Larry White, Beverly Hall, Jeanne Wiltbank and Brent Hall look over the student manual and discuss student council problems.

The council was granted $90 in federal funds to purchase citizenship books for the library.

The Council coordinated a Statehood Day Assembly on patriotism on Arizona Day, February 14.

The Council assigned half-time activities and concessions for all home football and basketball games and acted on student requests as a part of their duties.

A popcorn machine was purchased by the council for $395 for use by those having concessions at ball games. Each of the four classes and the Lettermen's Club donated $30 towards the purchase and each of the three cheerleading groups donated $10 each. The remainder was paid out of the activity fund and the council sells popcorn to those having concessions at 25¢ a cup and the profit is put into the activity fund.

As a good will measure, the council had a cake raffle (at no cost to the contestants) of six cakes at half-time of the Zuni game on January 19.

Yes, School Life is Many Things to Many people--each part is just as vital as the next.

As the yearbook staff says good-by for this school year, they are proud to have been a part of this year and to illustrate its activities for you in this book.

I hope we have pointed out the idea that each topic--ACADEMIC, CULTURAL, PHYSICAL and SOCIAL--is equally important for a complete school year.

It's all over now and the '66 ELK can take its place on the shelf along with its predecessors. I would like to express my appreciation to my dedicated advisors for all the long hours they have put into this book and give a special thanks to my devoted staff for all their priceless efforts in making this 1966 Elk a success.

My Dearest,-Freind Candace

Oh sometimes we do not agree on all subjject. we have had our share of bigths. But sometime we maybe able to meat on the same grounds. But untill that time we must or d should say my self must watch myself and try not to offend you. In the meantime you must be understanding of me because am a somewhat of a rebbles rebble. So pleas understand and bear with me.

Peace with ye
Nancy Calloway

P.S. enjoy the movie see you tomorrow at the picnic

Oh hope you will come and see me some time hope you remain my freind all through our selves. Peace.

just a little bit more advice first your kind of cute and certain not fat Good Luck to ye for ever. Dont ball for boys to hard untill you get older. When you find a boy that think you like just don't go all out unless you have stopped around a little. Some more about boy they are only human. and mother nature gave them a powerful lot to survie with in this world but they also must have a woman love. May be you understand what I am trying to say now but if you don't it might take a little figure out. One other thing never mind the things older people say and think about you the only thing that really matters is what you think of you self. If you think low of your self then other think the same thing if you think high of your self then other do too think of what I have to

Candace, you're a great girl with a wonderful personality.
Keep up the good work!
Lots of Luck
